

Paediatric BASIC Course

1st & 2nd July 2019, London

SPONSORED!

2-day internationally recognized course of lectures, skill stations and tutorials focused on a practical approach to the management of the first 24h of critical illness in childhood.

Aimed at: - Paediatric trainees about to or recently started in PICU
- Paediatric & adult emergency trainees
- Adult ICU-anaesthesia trainees/specialists
- Experienced PICU and A&E nurses

Course accredited by ESPNIC!!

Course delivered by highly experienced yet approachable faculty, including paediatric intensivists and anaesthetists from:

Royal Brompton Hospital
Great Ormond Street Hospital
Evelina London Children's Hospital St Mary's Hospital
John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford
Chidrens Acute Transport Service

Topics covered:

- Airway management
- Acute respiratory failure
- Mechanical ventilation
- Cardiopulmonary physiology
- Haemodynamic monitoring
- CHD, recognition & initial management
- Management of shock
- Severe sepsis
- Interpretation of ABGs & CXR
- Nutrition
- Sedation & analgesia
- Transport of critically ill children
- Neurological emergencies
- Acute renal failure
- Severe trauma

Details:

Clinical Skills Simulation Centre, Royal Brompton Hospital, London
£150 for internal (RBH) applicants (usually £350)
£275 for external applicants (usually £475)

What's included?

- 2 days' intensive training on how to look after critically ill children
- Course manual covering the above topics
- Morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea

To book your place, contact Sadiya Uddin (S.Uddin@rbht.nhs.uk).
For other enquiries, contact Angela Aramburo (A.Aramburo@rbht.nhs.uk)